Emerging out of Titan - Searching for Eros

May 15, 2009

Friday, 10:00AM

Location: For Goodness Sake Meeting Room
10157 Donner Pass Road, Truckee

Join Kimball Pier for a discussion about how culture informs us at a deep level and how to respond with creativity and grace to our current situation. Over the past 150 years, beginning with the Industrial Revolution, our Western culture has swung wildly between excess and lack. Notable examples are the Jazz Age of the 1920's followed by The Great Depression and what we are experiencing right now. We are a culture in its collective adolescence. As such, we as individual members respond as a part of it. This talk will focus on how we, as individual members of a collective feed the emptiness with excess and what we can do right now to participate in stopping the swing and bring ourselves into communion with gentleness, balance and love. Kimball Pier is a licensed marriage and family therapist and substance abuse counselor, and is completing a PhD. in depth psychology . Come join us for this interesting talk.

Seating is limited so reservations are highly suggested. Call Jeannine at 550-0758 or email happygoldens@sbcglobal.net to reserve a place. Donations suggested.

Women Empowering Women is dedicated to providing motivational speakers who address different aspects of achieving balance and harmony through the Mind, Body, and Spirit. For more information about our organization, email BobPatNash@aol.com.
